BOOK STORES.

A STANDARD HISTORY BY

GEN. LEE.

A Work of National and Permanent Value.

MEMOIRS OF THE WAR,

By Gen. Henry Lee.

("LIGHT HORSE HARRY")

Thoroughly Revised and Annotated,

BY GEN ROBERT E. LEE.

WHO HAS ADDED A FULL BIOGRAPHY OF HIS FATHER.

1 vol. octavo, 640 pages, with new Steel Portraits of Gen Henry Lee, Gen. Robert E. Lee, and Gen. Nathanael Greene, beautiful Steel Engravings of "Nation's Keeping the Pledge," and the "Surrender of Cornwallis." Maps of the Siege of Charleston S. C; the siege of Yorktown, Va.; the Battle fought near Camden; the Battle of Guilford; the Battle of Hobkirk's Hill; and a sketch of Gen. Henry Lee's residence.

This admirable history of the operations of the American Armies during the Revolutionary War in the Southern Department of the United States, is the standard work on the subject of which it treats (and the new edition, revised, corrected, and enlarged by Gen. Robert E. Lee, the distinguished son of the author, and embellished by elegant Engravings, and original Maps never before published, is a volume of the highest value to every intelligent person.

The history has been for a long time out of print, and because of its accuracy as a history of that interesting period (and that there was no work to supply its place) it was much sought for and a new edition demanded.

It is seldom that a new or real work by a distinguished author has the advantage of a revision by so distinguished a hand, and both of them great military leaders of the same section of the country.

Gen. Lee receives a LARGE COPYRIGHT FOR EVERY COPY OF THIS BOOK SOLD. Sold only by subscription.

Prices:—Handsomely bound in Cloth, $4 00.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1869.

HOW WOULD AN HONEST MAN ACT?

It strikes us that any honest man, having in his hands a public trust of any kind, against whom suspicion has been aroused, and public rumor had made charges of fraud and mismanagement, would, instead of shunning, court investigation.

There have been rumors, apparently well founded—rumors that we and thousands of the citizens of the State, irrespective of party, believe to be true, that the bonds appropriated by the Legislature for the purpose of building our Railroads, have been fraudulently applied to private uses by those into whose hands the law placed them. The charges have been repeated again and again. The men against whom the charges rest have been named, the particular instances pointed out in which the fraud was practiced. So notorious have these things become that the Legislature was obliged, in obedience to public opinion, to take notice of the matter, and to make, at least, a showing of a purpose to investigate the charges.

But what do we see! The men who are charged with fraudulent and dishonest practices, instead of coming forward and demanding an investigation of their official conduct, as all honest men would do, are found using every subterfuge to avoid it; while their friends, and, perhaps, copartners in guilt, although pretending to favor a full and fair investigation, are quibbling in every conceivable way to stave it off. And what is most remarkable of all, some of the very men implicated in the charges are found engaged in the gerrymandering in the Legislature and out of it, to avoid being brought to accountability for the trusts placed in their hands.

When the investigation was commenced in the House of Commons, on Friday last, Gen. Milton S. Littlefield, President of one division of the Western North Carolina Railroad, against whom rumor has boldly and openly alleged charges of corruption and fraud in the use of the State bonds, was in the city, and knew as well as any man in it that the investigation was going on, and that he would be called before the Bar of the House to answer in the matter. But, on Friday night, Gen. Littlefield left the city. It may be said that it was in pursuance of previous business arrangements that he left; we don't believe it.—But suppose it were so, would any honest man, conscious of having clean hands in the matter, have left under such circumstances? Would he not have waited one day to vindicate his name against the charges, if indeed he could vindicate it?

But look at the Legislature; we mean a large portion of it. With all the facts before them, and this additional incentive to suspicion; how tardily they move in the matter! How they twist and squirm under the pressure of public opinion, and lag back, under some unaccountable influence, from the discharge of a plain and imperative duty! They seem not only disposed but anxious to avoid an investigation, and act so as to weaken the chances for a truthful expose of the affairs of public servants whose very conduct is an evidence that there is something wrong—something they wish to conceal from the public eye. We allude to those who, from the first agitation in this matter, have resorted to every means to avert a full and fair investigation, by quibblings and parliamentary tactics unworthy the honest representatives of an honest but outraged people.

We do not believe the investigation will amount to much in the way of bringing out facts concerning the alleged frauds and mismanagement, because those who, like Gen. Littlefield, could give the necessary information, and whom steps were inaugurated to force to do it, will, like him, place themselves beyond the reach of the Legislature, until such time as they can safely return; as was the case in the investigation of similar charges last winter. But the movement will have one good effect; it will, in forcing these men to flee in order to avoid telling the truth and condemning themselves, convince the public mind that the charges are true, and while the particulars may be hid, the truth of the allegations will be established and the men whose hands are stained in the matter pointed out.

THE LEGISLATURE.—This body did nothing very extraordinary yesterday. A few unimportant bills and resolutions were passed through each House under a suspension of the rules.

A resolution was introduced in the House by Mr. Vest of Forsythe, to raise a joint committee to investigate Railroad bond matters, the committees to be appointed by the respective presiding officers. This we look upon as simply another maneuver to hamper the investigation and stave it off.

The first drove of hogs this season passed through Asheville on Friday last. Since then our streets have been vocal with the drovers, "hoa," "hoa." Not less than fifteen hundred head of hogs have passed through Asheville for the Southern Market. The prices asked here by the Drovers rule from 11 to 12 cents per lb. One Drover refused 11 cents, cash, for his whole drove. At such prices our visions of spare-ribs, backbone and sausages vanish into very small corn dodgers.—Asheville News.

The case of the State vs. Charles Rea, (col'd.) charged with assault with intent to commit a rape, was tried last Thursday and found guilty but recommended to the mercy of the Court.—Char. Times.

ABSCONDED!

$50,000 Reward, Payable in State Bonds, Special Tax!!

The Editor of the SENTINEL will pay the above reward in North Carolina special tax bonds, as soon as Treasurer Jenkins shall manipulate them up to a reasonable approximation to par value, for the apprehension and arrest of one Milton S. Littlefield, said to be a sort of proprietor of the Standard newspaper establishment, so as to have him before the Bar of the House of Representatives of the General Asembly of North Carolina, on Thursday next, to answer before the Committee of the Whole in the investigation of frauds on the State Treasury, committed under Governor Holden's administration.

The said Milton S. is about six feet two inches high, and weighs some seventy pounds more than Galloway, of New Hanover, the leader of the Senate, whose weight is said to be 182 pounds. He (Littlefield) has eyes and hair of dark color, complexion fair, and teeth sound. He was on intimate terms with the Governor and other officials at the time of his departure, and left to avoid testifying before the Committee of the Whole in regard to frauds alleged to have been committed by himself and others, if not with the Governor's connivance and approval, at least encouraged by his silence.

This absconding witness is President of one of our Railroads, and, when he left, had, or ought to have had, in his possession and keeping $4,000,000 State bonds, being the unsquandered portion of $7,000,000 appropriation made to the Road of which he is President; also $100,000 State bonds received by him as a fee for lobbying the Chatham Railroad appropriation of $2,000,000 through the Legislature last winter. He is also supposed to have in his possession a fee simple deed for the "killdee plantation," purchased from Senator Lassiter at $30 an acre—the land on which a forlorn squirrel would perish of hunger, even in the most plentiful acorn season. We are not certain whether this deed mentions the fact that Senator Lassiter, of whom the land was purchased at such a liberal price, was on the penitentiary committee which purchased of "the Ring" 8,000 acres of land for $100,000, which had cost the Ring the same week, about $5,000.

The said Milton may also have in his possession a deed for the Standard office, purchased for $20,000, which, if there had been no other considerations involved in the trade, would have been a hard bargain at $5,000; and wrapped up with this deed may, perhaps, be the official appointment of said Littlefield as State printer, by which he draws from the State over $100,000 for work intrinsically worth about the price he paid for the press.

The said Littlefield is the man that opened the free grog shop in the Capitol, last winter, where the Governor and members of the Legislature imbibed good liquors, for which poor Backslan, who furnished the liquors, wines and cigars, has not got all his money yet. He may have among the papers and Railroad bonds in his big tin box, a receipt for a part of this bill, leaving about $4,000 of it yet due; there may be also, in said box a copy of the presentment made against said Littlefield by the Grand Jury of Wake, for "efforts to bribe and corrupt the Legislature with whiskey and money." There may also, perhaps, be found among said papers, copies of letters of thanks to Judge Watts for adjourning the Court before the bill of indictment could be drawn, and also to Gov. Holden for having appointed him President of a Division of the Western N. C. Railroad, by which means he got in his possession the $4,000,000 bonds hereinbefore noticed.

The said Milton S. Littlefield left the city of Raleigh, on Friday night last, a few hours after the House of Representatives had commenced the investigation of the State bond frauds—indeed he left by the very first train. He had on, when he left, a pair of loud-colored pants with black stripes down the legs, black coat, beaver hat, white shirt with a linen bosom and cotton tail and a "killing" cravat, also a large gold ring on the little finger of the left hand.

He took the train of the North Carolina Railroad, which Road he expects to buy soon, if he can buy up enough members of the Legislature to vote for the sale of it.—He was accompanied on his trip by Rev. Pilgrim Ashley of Cape Cod and Buzzards Bay, carpet-bag Superintendent of Public Instruction in North Carolina. After he, (that is, the said Milton) had entered the car, he changed his beaver for a low, black cap, which very much changed his appearance. The Public Treasurer, by a remarkable co-incidence, was on the same train, and in the same coach with Milton; this was accidental, of course; but it was not accidental that the Treasurer feasted on fat roast chicken leg and biscuit, furnished by the absconding Railroad President and Radical Ring master.

We will pay the above reward for the return of the said Milton Snatchwell Littlefield, on the beforementioned conditions, and also a silver plateaven for Judge Alden, so that they may both be had before the Committee of the whole, in the House of Commons, on Thursday next, then and there the truth to say, (if it be possible for them to say it) in regard to all they know about the Railroad bond frauds and other rascalities as practiced in this State for the last two years, we to be allowed to conduct the examination.

Pomeroy's Democrat, Forney's "two papers, both Daily," New York Herald, Boston Post, National Intelligencer, Floridian at Tallahassee, and New Hampshire papers, copy and take pay therefor out of the next rise in North Carolina new State bonds.

A lady at Williamsport, Pa., has not been able to sleep a wink in months. Examination into the case by eminent physicians revealed the terrible truth—her nightgown was out of fashion. Ladies beware of such accidents!

IN MEMORIAM.

Departed this life, on the morning of the 16th of the present month, at the residence of his grand mother, Mrs. Martha B. Spencer, in the town of Oxford N. C., WILLIAM HENRY SPENCER, youngest son of Capt. A. F. Spencer, in the nineteenth year of his age.

The disease which terminated the life of this exemplary and promising young man was pulmonary consumption, whose poisoned shafts are always shot with fatal precision.

For weeks, he bore with meekness and resignation the ravages of this fell destroyer. His disease, for many months, told but slightly upon his manly form and moral qualities; but in its latter stage like a mighty hurricane, it bore him rapidly to the tomb. Many were the fond hopes entertained by his friends, that a kind Providence would restore him to sound health, but He, who orders all things well, has plucked this fair flower from earth to replant it, I trust, in the "Eden" of the skies. Oxford has never mourned the loss of a more high minded young man, and a dear sister has never shed tears of deeper sorrow beside the grave of a more affectionate and devoted brother. His mother died when he was a mere youth, but his early training devolved upon a pious grandmother and devoted christian sister, who faithfully pointed him to the "cross" and the rewards of the righteous. This noble young man was temperate in his habits; and his fidelity and strict regard for truth stamped his character with many and rare virtues, and bespoke for him a bright and happy future. He was the idol of grandmother, father, sister and brother, and now amidst sighs and tears they may rejoice to know, that in passing away he has left behind and mantle beauty of his character, and drink in sweetest pleasure from the well grounded hope that he is at rest, beyond the reach of disease or death.

Farewell, bright-eyed youthful friend,
Fond memory will oftimes follow thee
To thy happy home, when midst the glories
Of the upper world, thou art at rest.
We miss thee at home Henry; but live on,
Live ever, in the Paradise of God.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1869.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

DR. THOMAS H. TURNER having returned to his old home, offers his professional services to the citizens of Hillsboro and vicinity. 3w

Prof. S. Adams Lee, has kindly consented to repeat his lecture, "God in the Ocean" by the solicitation of many of the citizens of Raleigh, at Tucker Hall, Tuesday evening the 30th, commencing precisely at 8 o'clock. Our citizens may expect a rich treat in listening to this lecture, which has been so highly spoken of wherever delivered, and we hope to see a crowded house.

The request for a repetition of the Lecture, as announced above, was seconded, we confidently believe, by every one who had the good fortune to hear it on last Friday night. We have never heard a literary effort of the kind more enthusiastically praised, and many declared they would pay many times the price of admission to hear it again, even without regard to the object for which it was delivered, although that, of course, had its due weight before, and will again to-night, with those who may attend.

Proceeds for benevolence solely.

Admission 50 cts. at the door.

We noticed the following gentlemen of the Bar, present in attendance of the U. S. Court yesterday:

B. F. Moore, Hon. W. A. Graham, Mr Phelps, U. S. District Attorney for Eastern District of N. Y. Thos. Bragg, George Davis, Quent. Busbee, S. H. Rogers, J. B. Batchelor, R. Watt York, W. H. Battle, Rich'd H. Battle, Sam'l F. Phillips, Fabius Busbee, Geo. H. Snow, Chas. Busbee, A. M. Lewis, R. G. Lewis, Hon. A. S. Merrimon, N. McCoy.

N. J. Riddick, clerk of the Court, attending to the business of his particular department in a most intelligent and clerkly manner. He is perfectly at home in his position.

MORE KU KLUXING.—"We have received a telegram stating that the Ku Klux have brutally whipped a helpless cripple whose only offense was that he taught a school for colored children." Standard of the 29th.

The above "helpless cripple" is one Corless, who at one time resided in Edenton, where he rendered himself so offensive by his social equality professions and practices as to make it necessary to his comfort and safety to leave—both white and colored having come to the conclusion that he was not "the right man in the right place."

He came to Franklinton in Franklin county, where he pursued a similar course, which was attended by a similar result as at Edenton.

He next turned up at Company Shops, as teacher in a colored school. Some weeks ago, on a Sabbath morning, he escorted a couple of negroes into the Lecture room at Col. Bingham's school, while religious exercises were being conducted, he and they taking front seats. Col. Bingham told them if they came to enjoy the privilege of the religious services they could stay, but if merely to show a defiant intention of going into the Chapel or Lecture room when they pessed, they must leave. They immediately left.

On Sunday night, 21st inst., when Robt. Douglas, the Quaker, was to deliver a lecture on "Peace" at the white Church at Company Shops, this Corless went to the colored Church and advised the congregation of colored people to go to the Church of the whites and take possession, as they "were as much entitled to the seats there as the whites were." The colored people held a consultation on the subject, and concluded not to go.

This slight sketch of Corling will show to some extent what sort of man he is. On Saturday night he was dealt with after the manner of Judge Lynch, and notified to leave the neighborhood within ten days, which, we learn, he intends doing.

We do not, and never have, attempted to justify unlawful acts of this kind; we regret their occurrence; at the same time we regret that there are persons whose acts are so atrocious as to irritate communities beyond endurance and provoke this kind of punishment on their own heads.

One of the most thoroughly ironical productions we have read lately, is a letter written from the Senate Chamber in this city, over the signature of "Union," which interpreted means, "Grady," to the Wilmington Post, sarcastically ridiculing members of both Houses of the General Assembly.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Nov. 29.—Wm. Wardrup, for whipping his wife. Was sent to the jug—ought to stay there for life.

The Demand Tells The Story.—From all directions orders for PHALON'S VITALIA OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR come pouring in. All the noxious Dyes &c, go down before it. A year hence they will be unmarketable. The ladies say it is as pleasant to use as a perfumed toilet water, and it is as transparent as crystal. Nothing else reproduces so perfectly the original hue of the hair.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT, FOR THE DISTRICT OF N. C.—The November term of this Court opened in this city yesterday, His Honor Judge Brooks presiding. The session will be held in Wake county Court House.

Yesterday the libel case of the steamship Cuba was argued before the Court, Mr. Solicitor Starbuck and Messrs Phelps of New York and French of Wilmington, Counsel for the Government, and Messrs George Davis and O. D. Manns for the defense.

The morning session was occupied by Mr. Phelps, who opened the case in an able speech replete with argument and many citations from authorities on international law.

THE LADIES' FAIR—TO MORROW NIGHT.—The fatlings are killed, or will be to day; the cakes are baked and iced; all the nicknacks arranged. Pepper will furnish the oysters, smoking hot; the coffee will be clear and strong; the syllabubs and boiled custards, light and foamy. There will be a great deal good to eat and a good time generally; indeed, we always consider it a good time when there is a "heap" of good things to eat.

The ladies are expecting a large crowd on the occasion, as they intend to make it "a feast of fat things," and a pleasant time to all who may honor them upon the occasion.

APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE OF N. C.—A pamphlet under this title, signed "VOX POPULI," has been on our table for several days, and ought to have been noticed sooner, but was inadvertently overlooked. It treats, in a most able and exhaustive manner, the question of the General Assembly holding over until 1872. The arguments are conclusive and unanswerable, that the constitution contemplated no such thing, and shows that any attempt of the present Legislature to perpetuate its term beyond the first Thursday in August 1870, would be illegal and revolutionary.

The pamphlet ought to be read by every man in the State. It is for sale by Nichols & Gorman; price $3,00 per hundred.

NEW GOODS FOR GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.—Besson, Merchant Tailor, opposite the Market Square, Fayetteville street, has some splendid new goods for gentlemen's wear, which he is prepared to make up to order in the best and most fashionable style, at short notice. Advertisement to morrow.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—One word if you please.—I notice in the papers that the per diem and mileage of members of the General Assembly have been fixed at the old rates.—Have you thought what it costs the tax payers? The bonds of the State are selling in New York, according to yesterday's quotation, at 31 cents in the dollar. So the State has to issue, pay interest on, and finally pay in full, one hundred dollars for thirty one—receiving less than one third in value of what she promises to pay. Suppose State bonds are sold to pay the per diem. The State will have to issue, pay tax on and finally pay twenty two and a half dollars to raise enough money to pay Coffee Mayo for making laws for us one day. Really each member costs us each day $22,50 in bonds, which the members say must be paid in full.

They say the reason they put per diem so high, is that board is so much higher than formerly. I see from Mrs. Miller's advertisement in your paper, that she will board members at $5, per week making 71 3 7 cents per day, subtract that from $7,00 and we have $6.28 each member makes clear of stumps and runners. And Mrs. Miller keeps a splendid table, as I know from experience. A member living 200 miles, for example, from Raleigh gets $40 for going and $40 for returning, making $80 in all.—Billy Smith charges them on his road $10 for going and $10, returning, making $20 in all, which makes a clear profit to that member of $60. Tax payers are watching these things.

"HAWKE."

From the Portland, Me., Eastern Argus.

MRS. LINCOLN'S SECOND CHOICE.

Something About the Count Schneidenbutzen.

The "happy dog," as our readers have already been advised, is Count Schneidenbutzen, Grand Chamberlain to the Duke of Baden. Although this title is rather imposing, it does not, in the Count's own home, imply either an impressive weight of dignity or a purse noticeably heavy. The Duke of Baden has small cash to spare, and none to bestow on Grand Chamberlains, who have little to do about his court, and who "come cheap" in a land where every fourth Dutchman is a count or baron. Indeed, a moderate bellyfull of kraut and pumpernickel every Sunday is the only kind of "governance pap" that ever distends the shriveled skin of Schneidenbutzen, who is an uncommonly sorry specimen of the Teutonic nobility. The poor fellow is said to be in ecstacies over his good fortune in securing an heiress for a wife, and to be especially joyous in the prospect of falling into the vacant shirts, socks, breeches, and shoes of the "late lamented," a large number of which have not yet followed his coats and hats to the junk shop. A pair of the "martyr's" trowsers is being cut down for Schneidenbutzen by Count Kortzbratzen, the Grand Duke's tailor, S. being a short legged little fellow, while the late A. L., as everybody knows, strode the land on a pair of natural stilts. It will be a funny sight, no?, however, without some melancholy suggestiveness to behold poor Schneidenbutzen leading "Mary, relict of Abraham Lincoln, deceased," to the altar, clad in the veritable habiliments of his illustrious predecessor—his breeches shining with autographic grease spots left by White House dinners of the past—his little feet shaking about loose in a pair of Illinois boots a mile too big for them—and his tiny hands chased in a pair of enormous yellow kids in which the fists of the martyr was said to bear striking resemblance to a cassavased Cincinnati ham. Poor little S.! For our part we don't begrudge him a stitch of the sacred wardrobe. He will have earned it all before he is done with Mary L., and as she only reserved after her bereavement, those garments which nobody would buy, her new husband will begin his matrimonial career by falling into uncommonly bad habits.

DOWN STAIRS FULL; UP STAIRS FULL; SHELVES FULL; PILED ON THE COUNTER; PILED ON BOXES AND ALL ABOUT THE HOUSE!

COME TO CREECH'S!!

DRESS GOODS! DRESS GOODS! In great variety; Styles new; Goods pretty, cheap enough to buy.

FRENCH MERINOES,

In which I recognize no competition, as they will be sold just as cheap as they were when Cotton was 19 cents per lb. and money equivalent to gold.

ALWAYS COME TO CREECH'S to buy MERINO DRESSES for my money is as good as anybody's; I bought them as cheap as anybody, and I intend to sell as cheap as anybody. That's the way to talk it.

GOODS FOR MEN AND BOYS' WEAR,

Such as Kentucky Jeans, Tweeds, Satinets and Cassimeres. No better assortment or greater variety in the city. In fact, I have enough to keep the boys, the youths, the young men and the old gentlemen, all warm. Step in at Creech's and look at them before you buy.

HATS! HATS! HATS!

For Gent's, Boys and Children. Pull off your old summer hat; it's too late to wear it now; style is changed. In fact, a new hat looks best, anyhow. Call at Creech's corner and examine, before you buy a new Hat.

SHOES! SHOES!

One among the largest and best assortments in the City. Come pull off your old shoes, throw away those that are worn out, and put on a new pair. Keep your feet dry, and preserve your health. Always come to Creech's before you buy.

Ladies and Misses' Hats! Hats!

No use to talk. The style has changed. Spring and Summer styles are out of vogue; so go to CREECH'S. HE ALWAYS KEEPS THE NEW STYLES.

LADIES' BONNETS,

Some small enough; some large enough; some trimmed; some untrimmed. It won't do you any harm to call at Creech's before you buy.

CLOAKS AND SHAWLS.—A Fine Assortment.

Now don't you think you had just as well step over to CREECH'S, and look. Probably you will save time and money. In fact, that is just the very place to get the worth of your money; and permit me to tell the people, that when they visit the City, to COME TO CREECH'S, for thousands who have come, acknowledge the truthfulness of my assertions.

I have more to say to you, but will tell you the balance at my place of business.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

The Most Eminent Teachers in North Carolina

DECLARE EMPHATICALLY IN FAVOR OF

The National Series of School Books,

WHICH WERE

Adopted by the State Board of North Carolina, Sept 9, 1869.

UNANIMOUSLY

Adopted by the State Board of Alabama, Aug. 18, 1869.

UNANIMOUSLY

Adopted by the State Board of Louisiana, July 17, 1869

By reference to the accompanying lists of Text Books used in the Schools of North Carolina in 1868 and those adopted this year, it will be seen that, in nearly every important particular,

THE OLD NORTH CAROLINA STANDARD IS RETAINED.

1869. The Present Standard Adopted by the Board of Education.	1868. The Original Standard Recommended by the State Superintendent,
Parker and Watson's Spellers.	Webster's Ele'y. Spelling Book.
Parker and Watson's Primer	N. C. Reader No. I.
Parker & Watson's Readers	North Carolina Reader No. II.
Beers' System of Penmanship,	North Carolina Reader No. III.
Davies Primary Arithmetic.	Davies' Primary Arithmetic.
Davies' Intellectual Arithmetic.	Davies' Intellectual Arithmetic.
Davies' Written and Practical Arith's.	Davies' School Arithmetic.
Monteith's Series of Geographies.	Monteith's Manual of Geography.
McNally's School Geography,	McNally's School Geography.
Monteith's History United States.	Bullion's English Grammar.

From Rev. C. H. WILEY formerly State Supt. of Education.

BRISTOL, TENN., Oct. 14, 1869.

I had seen by the papers what had been done by the Board of Education in North Carolina and was glad. I had ample reasons for my former recommendations in the use of the books in our schools.

These Books are Used by the Best Schools in the State.

Late Testimonials in Brief.

It affords me great pleasure to bestow on them my heartiest commendation. They are vastly superior to any other books of the kind I have yet seen.—W. H. WEATHERLY, Prin Class. and Math. School, Elizabeth City, Oct. 25, 1869.

Send me ten Davies' Intellectual Arithmetics for introduction. They are superior to any I have seen.—W. F. EGGLESTON, Mount Olive, Oct. 20, 1869.

I intend using the same books in my school as those used in the Common schools. . . . I am already using Monteith's Geographies.—JOHN D. JOHNSON, Yadkinville, Sept. 25, 1869.

I am and have ever been an earnest advocate of uniformity in school books. The Board recommendations—Arithmetics and Geographies—are the best that could have been made.—H. E. SMITH, Lincolnton, Sept. 28th, 1869.

Because these books are adopted by the State Board, as well as for the merits of the books themselves, we wish to introduce them, and use them exclusively in our school.—Rev. S. C. ALEXANDER, Charlotte, Oct. 11, 1869.

Steele's "Nat. Philosophy" received. Am struck with its superiority to the other in many respects. As a class is waiting, substitute in my order Steele's Philosophy for first introduction. —O. W. JEWETT, Washington, Oct. 13, 1869.

Davies' Mathematics was adopted by me in 1856, and up to the time I have examined no work superior to them. I have examined McNally's Geography and Fock's Ganot's Natural Philosophy. I consider them most excellent works and shall put them into my boys' hands at the earliest period.—J. E. PROCTOR, Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton.

It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's (No. 3) into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works (Monteith and McNally) seem to me to be admirable.—Rev. ALDERT BARNES, D.D., Rector of St. Mary's, Raleigh.

The system of Geography—Monteith and McNally—I am well pleased with.—Rev. WM. S. LACY, Raleigh.

Davies' Arithmetics, Monteith's Geographies and the National Readers are too well known to require a word from me. Monteith and Davies are the best that I am acquainted with.—Prof. FRANK VANDIAN, Elizabeth City, Oct. 11, 1869.

I have waited patiently for the adoption by the Board of Education of this State of the books to be used in the public schools, and am much pleased to find that so many have been selected from the National Series.—Rev. W. L. MILLER, Charlotte, Oct. 1, 1869.

Am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the readers (and as to the Series of Geographies, I have long used the others when those could be obtained.—Dr. WM. H. HARRIS, Prin. High School, Snow Hill.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible makes it, (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.—Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School.

I design introducing McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetics.—Dr. CLOSS, Prin. Durham Academy.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. An admirable work.—M. L. LEITER, Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.—PITTSCHER IVEY, Prin. Auburn Academy.

The superior and durable style of binding of your books is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.—Prof. WM. A. GRAHAM, late Hillsboro' Military Academy.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose. With Davies' Mathematical series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them. In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies.—Rev. O. D. BERNHEIM, Prin. Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant.

The National Series of Readers and Spellers are the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school. I use Davies. I consider his works incomparably superior in many respects. Monteith's Series afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression.—Prof. JOS. H. FOX, President Stanton-burg Scientific High School.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography.—Prof. W. C. KERR, State Geologist of North Carolina.

Mr. Edward Johnson Office's Chapel, has introduced the National Readers, Monteith's Geographies, Davies Arithmetics, Clark's Grammars, etc.; Mr. John Franks, Grove P. O., has introduced the National Series throughout; Mr. W. A. Branch, New Hill P. O., uses the National Series throughout; Mr. Adolphus Rogers, Green Level P. O., uses the National Readers, Copy-Books, Monteith's Geographies, and York's Grammar; Mrs. Emma Bingham, Cary P. O., uses the National Series; Mr. H. C. Olive, New Hill P. O., introduced Monteith's Geographies. There are now at least 250 pupils in Wake and Chatham counties who are daily using the National series of books, within my knowledge.—Prof. W. H. MERRITT, Chatham county, Sept. 14, 1869.

I am glad to learn that some of your books are to be introduced into our State Schools.—Prof. J. M. M. CALDWELL, Greensboro' High school, Oct. 22, 1869.

Distinguished Editors and Critics Praise Them.

The Series must prove acceptable. The signature of ingenuity is beautifully exhibited.—Fayetteville Presbyterian.

This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them which are among the best in the State.—Statesville American, 1866.

Have a reputation for merit unsurpassed.—Statesville American, 1869.

Peculiarly adapted to supply the wants we have long felt.—Greensboro' Patriot.

Have acknowledged superiority by the most competent judges.—Western Sentinel.

Davies is excellent in the first degree.—Wadesboro Argus.

Are excelled by none of the many used, and they are superior to most of them.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

When we examine the bright pages of the National Series, and think how we groped along the dry and uninteresting "task" of our boyhood, we are constrained to be envious of the happy pupils of the present.—Wilmington Post.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.—Wilmington Herald.

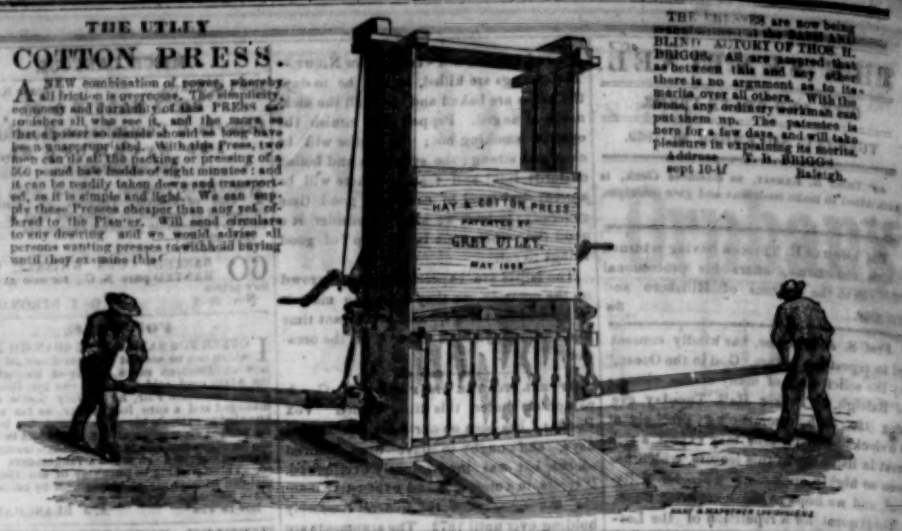
THE UTLEY

COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been a desideratum. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale feeding of eight minutes; and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this!



THE [illegible]28 are now being [illegible] the NAME AND BLIND AUTHORY OF THOS. H. BRIGGS. All are assured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the Press, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

Address, T. H. BRIGGS, sept 10-tf Raleigh.

AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.

ALL THE SURPLUS OF THE COMPANY DIVIDED AMONG THE ASSURED.

DIVIDENDS DECLARED AND PAID ANNUALLY ON THE CONTRIBUTION PLAN.

ALL POLICIES (AFTER TWO FULL PAYMENTS) NON-FORFEITABLE, AND SO EXPRESSED ON EACH POLICY.

No Restrictions as to Residence and Travel in the United States.

RATES LOWER THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY THAT PAYS DIVIDENDS TO POLICY-HOLDERS.

IT ISSUES ALL THE VARIOUS FORMS OF LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES.

LOSSES PAID PROMPTLY IN CASH.

LIST OF LOSSES ACTUALLY PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INS. CO., AT THE BRANCH OFFICE, IN RALEIGH, BY THE HANDS OF W. H. CROW, GENERAL MANAGER OF THE STATE AND PART OF VA.

"	22,201	15,00

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$10,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,19
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,34
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,37
THE NATIONAL,	83,69
THE ÆTNA,	13,61

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the CHIEF INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fulness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 580 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets amounting up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,577 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars, and this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
